

Benefits

One of the major advantages of being a student is certainly the access to countless discounts and benefits. Almost every company and institution (museums, etc.) offers discounts for students. As a student, taking advantage of these benefits is an essential part of making ends meet on an often tight budget. In this chapter you will find a selection of what we consider to be the best student deals.

Deutsche Bahn/German Train service: DB (the German train company) offers students various discounts on train tickets as well as on BahnCards. It's best to check the DB website to find out which discounts are available to you.

ÖPNV/Public transport: Many universities offer their students a ticket for public transport. This is usually already included in the semester fees and allows students to use the entire network. It is best to find out from your university if they offer a semester ticket and what conditions it includes.

Contribution to public television and radio: Under certain circumstances, students can apply for exemption from the contribution to public television and radio. This mainly applies to BAföG recipients and hardship cases. You can find information about this on the website of the broadcasting corporations to find out whether an exemption is possible for you.
